The second column has an open book icon and the title 'Come check us out!'. The third column has a lightbulb icon and the title 'Facility Hours and Location'. The fourth column has a calendar icon and the title 'Calendar'. Below the 'Online Resources' column, the text 'Card Catalog' is circled in red, and a yellow arrow points to it from the right. Below the 'Facility Hours and Location' column, there is a list of hours: 'Monday - Wednesday 10 AM-8 PM', 'Tuesday - Sunday 10 AM - 6 PM', 'Holidays - Closed', and 'Located in building 451'. Additional notes:

Please note, some of our Resources require an additional access code in order for you to set up your individual account for that resource.

To see which resources require an access code, we have posted a handout of our Online resources on the Library webpage (refer back up to step 3, and look for Online Resources underneath the red circle).

We have also highlighted the resources on the image above. Resources highlighted in yellow require an additional access code from library staff. Due to contract restrictions, library staff may only give the access codes to patrons in person. We may not post them online, distribute them in handouts, or give them out verbally over the phone.

Resources highlighted in red are only available through the Air Force Portal.
